

Recreation for convalescents is an important part of Red Cross work in France. The photo shows the interior of a recreation tent of a field hospital.

Copyright, Committee on Public Information.

Camouflaging a road leading to the headquarters of the 42d Division in France. Branches on wires overhead are essential to concealment.

Copyright, Committee on Public Information.

Statue of Germania on a Cincinnati office building transformed after forty years into one of Miss Columbia. A new head, new draperies and improved shield did wonders.

Mrs. William S. Sims and her daughters, Margaret and Adelaide, photographed at Squantum, Mass. The Admiral's wife had just been sponsor for the destroyer Delphi.

International Film.

Democratic ice cream cones proved fascinating to child members of society at the recent Islip Horse Show. Left to right: Lillian Hollins, Bobby Hollins, Bessie Belmont, Gerard Hollins, Anita Potts, Faith Hollins, Polly Potts and Nancy Morgan.

Photo Central News.

American soldiers (and a sailor) on pleasure bent near Paris. The bridge of St. Germain in the background. Apparently the party is going boating on the Seine.

Copyright, International Film.